SUPER LAWYERS SELECTS THREE BERCOW RADELL & FERNANDEZ ATTORNEYS FOR INCLUSION IN SUPER LAWYERS EDITION 2014

MIAMI (June 26, 2014) – Bercow Radell & Fernandez, specializing in zoning, land use and environmental law, announced today that Jeffrey Bercow and Michael Radell, founding partners of the firm, have been selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers Edition 2014 in their respective fields: Bercow in land use/zoning law and Radell in environmental law.

In addition, partner Melissa Tapanes Llahues has been selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers-Rising Stars Edition 2014. While up to five percent of the lawyers in the state are named to Super Lawyers, no more than 2.5 percent are named to Rising Stars.

Bercow has been selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers since 2006 and Radell since 2008; Tapanes Llahues has been selected for the Rising Stars edition for the past several years as well.

“Since the formation of our firm 18 years ago, we have focused on land use, zoning and environmental law in Miami and the surrounding communities, which has served us well with the growth of South Florida,” Bercow said. “For that reason, we are particularly delighted to be included in the new edition of Super Lawyers again this year in our specialty areas.”

The multiphase selection process involves creation of the candidate pool, evaluation of candidates by the Super Lawyers research department, and peer evaluation by practice area. Each candidate is evaluated on 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement. Candidates cannot nominate themselves, nor can they pay to be on a Super Lawyers list.

Bercow Radell & Fernandez is a leading land use, zoning and environment law firm that offers counsel in comprehensive planning, DRI, growth management and approvals, among other areas. It represents clients before local and state agencies, as well as provides appellate litigation services to administrative proceedings.
